WO of the East's most sensational performers among the younger swimmers, Leo Giebel, at the top, and Richard Mayer, are to match their skill as sprinters in the tank of the New York Athletic Club this evening. Mayer's remarkable all around ability is directly responsible for Yale's high position in the intercollegiate race.

Yale Team Will Clash With Veterans in Races and Water Polo

The Yale University swimming team vill be put to its severest test of the season when it meets the all-star commination of the New York Athletic Club in the Winged Foot tank in this city to-night. Seven events will comprise the programme, the most important of which will be a water polo collegians w endeavor to match their youth against the skill and experience of men, the majority of whom were members of the Winged Foot national championship teams of many years ago. The veterans will include Joe Ruddy, L. de B. Handley, Ogden Reid and Tom McCarthy.

Two Vale Stars Missing

Vale places much confidence in Richard Mayer, its captain, in the sprints and Johnny Hincke, who was captain of the Eli freshman team last year. Mayer is to start in the 50 and 220-yard events, while Hincke will compete in the century swim. Yale has been badly weakened through the absence of Alexander and Badger, both of whom were burt recently.

Physical Culture Course Is Urged For Harvard "Fresh"

AMBRIDGE, Mass., Feb. 21. -A required course in physical culture for freshat Harvard University was urged as the greatest need in athletics by William F. Garcelon, former graduate treasurer of athletics, in a letter to "The Harvard Alumni Bulletin" to-day.

"Give boys instruction in running, jumping, wrestling, vaulting, fencing, swimming, boxing, hurdling and light gymnastics and they will naturally play games, and, further, they will have the fundamental requirements upon which good soldiers are built," he

"Harvard should have a required course of physical trainng for freshmen, not in calisthenics and dumb bells, but a course such as I have suggested

Five from Poly

The man Stevens Tech, was forced to play its hardest game of the senson to defeat the Polytechnic Institute basketball team on the former's court, in Hoboken, last night by a score of 29 to 24. The victors led by 14 to 12 at the end of the first half and were pressed hard to maintain this advantage thereafter. Stevens was able to retain its undefeated slate through the accurate foul basket shooting of Riesenberger, its captain, and Carlson. Out of thirteen chances the Stevens men only missed three of them. Each five scored nine goals from the field. Cheer, with five field goals, was the Poly star.
